Chapter 1 by The Book of Stories

Rina bent down and lifted her heart up to whoever was out there go help her get through the pain and agony of....high school.

It might sound so simple, but, it was so hard to deal with drama, and homework, in Rina's sister's opinion.

How was she going to get through this as a new girl in her junior year, during the MIDDLE of the year?

Everyone will already have their friend groups, and lovers!

Rina bustled into a run on her way to highschool.

Someone named Erin would be leading Rina around the school.

.....-.....

After making it into the school and signing in, Rina waited for the person who would be escorting her.

His eyes were chocolate brown, and his blonde hair hung lazily over an eye. He was a bit taller than her, and he seemed playboyish.

Rina felt her face melt when he motioned her to follow her.

After the escort, they talked for a bit.

They exchanged names, and told a few things about themselves.

The boy's name was Daniel, and he was in the sports club.

'I hope I can meet him again soon, but then again, he's way out of my league...'

For signing up clubs, she chose art club. She made only three friends, Anna, Fiona, and Mika. They were pretty awesome, and they were like Rina.

Maybe this would be so bad after all...
